What is Plagiarism?

Using someone else's work - either their words or ideas – without giving them credit.

Failing to put borrowed language in quotation marks.

Failing to put summaries and paraphrases in your own words.

Recycling your own work and submitting it as if its new

Copying other person's work - even with their permission - to hand it has your own

Copying something like a graph or a picture and pretending it is your own work.

Having someone to do your work or paying someone to do your work and saying it is your own.

How to Avoid Plagiarism?

Avoid Plagiarism by using in text citation and a Works Cited

Avoid Plagiarism by using quotation marks around borrowed words and phrases (and don't forget the intext citation!)

Avoid plagiarism by planning ahead and not leaving things to the last minute

Avoid plagiarism by planning your own work and giving credit where it is due.

Transcribed from https://youtu.be/brOoE7SufrA